BRITISH TAEKWONDO™

WANT TO BE A JUDGE OR A REFEREE??

The starting point to becoming a judge or a referee is to attend an official British Taekwondo Judges / Referee's course. Once you qualify as a judge you can then attend events as an official and after period of time as a judge, you can progress onto centre refereeing.

Judging courses are open to all students (Parents) of any age but can only Judge from the age of 16yrs old and could lead you to attend many events in the UK and also overseas. During last year, our British Taekwondo Referee's traveled all over the world, often funded, to referee at events such as the US Open, Belgian Open, Dutch Open, Swiss Open, World Championships, European Championships, Olympic Qualifiers – these are only a few of the events.

The British Taekwondo Referee Committee are holding a judges course at K.R.Ali's Taekwondo Academy and have a limited number of spaces available. Anyone interested in becoming a judge, or just learning the rules of the sport for education purposes, should contact Chris Codling (British Taekwondo Referee Chairman) on 07836 372755 or by e-mail chris.codling@britishtaekwondo.org and he will arrange to get the information to you.

Don't forget – you don't have to be a top class fighter to be at the Olympics, World or European Championships – referee's take part as well !!!!
